

GERARD AND THE BLACK BAG

AMBASSADOR GERARD

New picture of James W. Gerard, in Washington, following his recall from Germany. The picture shows Gerard carrying the black bag which he had always in his possession from the time he left Germany until he arrived in Washington. The bag contained important documents which Gerard would not entrust to any one.

—o—o— ANNOUNCEMENTS MONDAY

Banquet in honor of Clayton F. Smith at Gersten's hall, Ashland av. and Division, 6:30 p. m. Plates $1.

Samuel E. Hussey, ex-hobo and student of hobo life, lectures on "The Eternal Vagrant," Hobo College, 917 Washington Blvd., 8 p. m.

TUESDAY

Mr. C. H. Burkholder lectures on "Treasures of the Art Institute" at Stanford Park, Union and 14th pl. Children's picture show at 4:30 p. m.

Waiter's club mass meeting at Walters' club, 115 W. Madison, at 2:30 p. m.

Municipal market ass'n meets at Garfield park refectory, 2:30 p. m. Subjects: "Gardens and Market."

Alfred B. Westrupp, prof. of economic science, gives free lessons in economics every Tues. at 8 p. m., 4117 Vincennes av.

Miscellaneous Hotel and Restaurant Employees' ass'n, Local 874, A. F. of L., holds membership meeting for day workers at 8 p. m., at 115 W. Madison. Non-members invited.

—o—o— TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

New York.—Sen. Albert S. Cummins of Iowa left Roosevelt hospital today, having entirely recovered from collapse suffered Saturday.

Madison.—Defeat of Bennett resolution criticizing Sen. LaFollette for his armed neutrality filibuster indicated. Senate to vote on it Wednesday or Thursday.

Edgerton, Wis.—Olga Osnard fell into ice hole. Eben Lien lay town on ice and, with Jimmie Henderson holding his feet, dragged girl to safety. All 12.